

Snacks/Lunch Policy:

Masoret Yehudit is a Glatt Kosher school and ONLY kosher food is allowed onto the campus. You MUST adhere to the following rules when sending food from home for your child.

1. All food MUST be Glatt Kosher, if you do not keep a kosher home, please DO NOT send home cooked food with your child.
2. All food must be ready to eat. We cannot heat or prepare food sent from home in our facility.
3. All utensils must be disposable; staff cannot wash containers, silverware, etc.
4. Packaged foods MUST display the following acceptable kashrut symbols. These are the symbols that are most common in South Florida. If you would like to bring something with a different symbol please check with us in advance.

5. Any food items without acceptable symbols will be thrown away and your child will not be permitted to eat it.
6. NO peanuts, peanut butter, or foods containing nut ingredients are allowed. We are a nut free school.
7. Trading or sharing of food or snacks amongst students is strictly prohibited.
8. Students are encouraged to bring fresh fruits and vegetables as snacks, however other acceptable items include pretzels, granola bars, cereal, chips, rice cakes, yogurt, popcorn (for older children). Candy, gum, etc. should NOT be brought to school.

Thank you for complying with our kashrut standards, if you have questions or concerns please feel free to ask.
